

Damaris Scriven

August, 2012

Since receiving her Bachelor's Degree from The City College of New York in June, Damaris Scriven will be working as an intern at THG for the 2012-13 school year. Her focus subjects are English, American History and Spanish. While here in Essen she will be also be enrolled as a student at the Volkshochschule to continue to learn the German language. She currently lives nearby in Essen-Werden. Her hobbies include reading non-fiction books and English literature, watching films and bike riding.

Ms. Scriven hopes to gain in-class experience through observation and active participation. She welcomes any ideas offered by her colleagues to make the time together more valuable.

She also hopes to offer a unique cultural view for the pupils as a native English speaker, a New Yorker and a speaker of Latin American Spanish. The cultural exchange should benefiting to both the pupils and Ms. Scriven.

She looks forward to the remainder of the school year at THG.
